Thank you to all producers who were able to attend DFNS' 23rd Annual General Meeting, held last week. Participation was strong, with a total of 92 farms represented over the two days. Roughly 74% of those farms were represented in-person, while the balance participated online. A recap of the AGM highlights will be included in your December newsletter to be published later this month.

As always, immediately following the conclusion of the AGM, your Board met to elect their Executive for the coming year. The results were as follows:

Greg Archibald, Chair garchibald@dfns.ca
Dustin Swinkels, Vice Chair dswinkels@dfns.ca
Robert J. Dillman, Third Member of Executive rdillman@dfns.ca

Greg Archibald will continue the role of National Director, representing Nova Scotia producers at the Canadian Milk Supply Management Committee, P5 Chairs and GMs, and the P10. Robbie MacGregor will assume the role to represent Nova Scotia on the P5 Quota Committee. Additionally, all directors have taken on various roles from the extensive list of regional and provincial committees where DFNS will represent producer interests in the coming year.
